Press Release 6 September 2007

Champion of the Earth in Brisbane for the World Clean Air Congress

Elisea “Bebet” G. Gozun, 2007 United Nations Champion of the Earth for Asia and the Pacific, is in Brisbane this week as keynote speaker at the 14th World Clean Air Congress. She is a former Secretary of the Department of Environment and Natural Resources in the Philippines and now serves as the Acting Chair of the Clean Air Initiative for Asian Cities Partnership Council.

Ms Gozun is an expert on the engagement of communities, the private sector and local governments toward achieving practical policies for clean air and funding initiatives for cleaner production in Asia. An activist who is involved with many environmental NGOs, she has served as a consultant on environmental management and urban development to World Bank, ADB, USAID, UNDP, UN Habitat, AUSAID and other development partners.

Ms Gozun will be addressing the Congress delegates at the Brisbane Convention Centre on Tuesday 11th September at 9am.
